

Bangladesh International School, English Section- Riyadh

Islamic Education. Grade - 5

Unit-8, Lesson-2

(Good behavior)

Q1. Who is best among Muslims?

A. The best person among the Muslims is the one who has the best character.

Q2. What is the position of akhlaq in Islam?

A. The position of akhlaq (good character) is very important in Islam. Good character is better than voluntary Ibadah. The one who practices this quality is the best person.

Q3. What are the benefits of good character?

A. When we practice good character we achieve two benefits.

a. The pleasure of Allah and eternal happiness in Jannah.

b. The pleasure of people and their respect and love.

Q4. Why is Prophet Muhammad (SAW) called the best example of character?

A. Our beloved prophet (SAW) was the best example of best character because he never spoke bad, indecent word to others. He always advised people to deal with other considerately.

Q5. Why is good character considered better than voluntary "Ibadah"?

A. Good character is considered better than voluntary Ibadah because practicing good character has a good effect on the society. It creates understanding mutual love and respect among people.

Fill in the blanks

a. Imam and Akhlaq are twins.

b. Practicing good character creates understanding, mutual love and respect among the people of the society.

c. Good character is better than voluntary Ibadah in Islam.

d. Showing good character is sign of Iman.

e. The best Muslim is he who exercises good character.