

NAME: _____ SUBJECT: ISLAMIC EDUCATION

GRADE: 5 CHAPTER: UNIT-8, L-2 Good Behaviour

SECTION: _____ NO OF WORKSHEET _____

TEACHER'S NAME: MRS. KISHWAR SULTANA SIGNATURE OF HOD _____

(Q1) Fill in the blanks:

- (a) Iman and akhlaq are inseparable.
- (b) Practicing good character creates understanding, mutual love and respect among the people of the society.
- (c) Good character is better than voluntary ibadah in Islam.
- (d) Showing good character is sign of Iman.
- (e) The best Muslim is he who exercises good character.

(Q2) Write True or False:

- (a) T The Iman of a Muslim cannot be complete if he fails to practice good character.
- (b) T When Iman is firm then akhlaq will be good.
- (c) F Practicing good character has no effect on the society.
- (d) F We must try to show good behavior in some situations.

(Q3) Answer the following questions:

(Q1) Who is best among Muslims?

Ans: The best person among the Muslims is the one who has the best character.

(Q2)What is the position of akhlaq in Islam?

Ans:The position of akhlaq (good character)is very important in Islam.Good character is better than voluntary Ibadah.The one who practices this quality is the best person

(Q3)What are the benefits of good character?

AnsWhen we practice good character we achieve two benefits.

- (a)The pleasure of Allah and eternal happiness in Jannah.
- (b)The pleasure of people and their respect and love.

(Q4)Why is prophet Muhammad(SAW)called the best example of character?

Ans:Our beloved Prophet(SAW)was the best example of best character because he never spoke bad,indecent words to others.He always advised people to deal with other considerately

(Q5)Why is good character considered better than voluntary "Ibadah"?

Ans:Good character is considered better than voluntary Ibadah because practicing good character has a good effect on the society.It creates understanding mutual love and respect among people.