

GRADE 6

CHAPTER-1

INTERNET

Q1. What is a web browser?

Ans: Web browser is a software that helps to access and navigate the web directly from your computer.

Eg: Internet Explorer, Google Chrome

Q2. What is Address bar?

Ans: Address bar is used to type the address of website in its address box.

Q3. What is Home Page?

Ans: Home Page is the main or introductory page of the website.

Q4. What is the use of History button?

Ans: History button shows the list of web pages which you have visited during a particular number of days.

Q5. Define Modem.

Ans: Modem is Modulator Demodulator. It allows your computer to use telephone line or cable to get connected with another computer.

Q6. What is an ISP? Give example.

Ans: ISP is a company or an organization which provides access to the Internet.

Eg: Mobily, STC

Q7. What do you mean by "E-learning"?

Ans: E-learning refers to the use of the network and communication technology in teaching and learning,

Q8. Define Search Engine.

Ans: Search engine is a program that searches through a collection of web pages for particular information on a particular topic or theme.

Eg: Google, Yahoo

Q9. Define URL.

Ans: URL refers to the address or location of a web page or the website on the Internet.

Q10. What are the components of Internet Access Software?

Ans: The two main components of Internet Access Software are Dialer software and TCP/IP Network software.

Q11. What are the advantages of Internet? Explain.

Ans: The advantages of Internet are

- 1. We can search any type of information on any subject on the Internet.
- 2. We can do online shopping.
- 3. We can also pay bills, read news papers send greetings over the Internet.
- 4. We can easily download songs, music and play games on the Internet.
- 5. We can fill online forms over the Internet.
- 6. We can check the train, airplane timings and buy the tickets over the Internet.
- 7. We can chat with our friends and relatives.
- 8. We can easily search and read books over the Internet.