

(Q2) Fill in the blanks with appropriate word/ words:

(a) Camel can drink 115 liters of water in few minutes.

(b) Desert animals get water from the food they eat.

(c) Hot deserts can be cool at night.

(Q3) Write "True" or "False" on the left side of the following statements.

(a) T A camel can lose one third of its body weight and still be alive.

(b) T Cold deserts are found in the Antarctic and Arctic regions

(c) F Roots of acacia tree do not grow deep in the soil.

(Q4) Answer the following questions:

(a) What is a desert?

Ans: Desert is a dry place with little rainfall.

(b) How many kinds of deserts are there? Name two hot deserts?

Ans: There are two kinds of deserts. They are hot deserts and cold deserts. The two hot deserts are Sahara and Kalahari.

(c) How do desert plants adapt to the dry conditions?

Ans: Desert plants like cactuses store water in their thick stem and trees like acacia grow their roots very deep to reach underground water.

(d) How can a camel adapt to life in the desert?

Ans: A camel can go a long time without drinking water. It can lose about one-third of the weight of its body and still live.

BANGLADESH INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL. ENGLISH SECTION, RIYADH

NAME: _____

SUBJECT: GEOGRAPHY

GRADE: 4 SECTION: _____

LESSON: DESERT PEOPLE

NO OF WORKSHEET: ____

SEMESTER: FIRST TERM

Signature of HOD:  27/09/2020

(Q1) Write true or false:

1. T Nomads live in the desert.
2. F Bedouins often travel during the daytime.
3. T An oasis is a fertile land in the desert.
4. T Plants like apricot and figs are grown in the oasis of Sahara desert.

(Q2) Match the following:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| 1. Gers are made of | one oasis to another. (5) |
| 2. The sheep and goats | North Africa. (4) |
| 3. The best known desert animal is | thick felt. (1) |
| 4. Sahara desert is in | feed on the scattered desert plants (2) |
| 5. Nomads travel from | camel. (3) |

(Q3) Fill in the blanks:

1. The Mongol people of the Gobi desert make tents of thick felt.
2. Bedouins live in the tent made from camel's skin.

3. Bedouins wear long flowing robes to protect themselves from the heat, cold and wind blown sand.

(Q4) Select the right answer:

1. Gers are made of

(a) thick felt (b) thin cloth (c) paper

2. The best known desert animal is

(a) cow (b) monkey (c) camel

3. The Nomadic Mongols live in the

(a) Sahara desert (b) Gobi desert (c) Kalahari desert

4. The round tents in the desert are called

(a) gers (b) hut (c) house

5. In deserts, sometimes underground water flows to the surface making a

(a) dam (b) spring (c) lake

6. Mongol people of the Gobi desert are

(a) herdsmen (b) fishermen (c) farmer

(Q5) Answer the following questions:

(a) What is an oasis?

Ans: An oasis is a place in the desert where water is found. The land becomes fertile and plants can be grown.

(b) Write a few lines on the life of Bedouins living in the desert.

Ans: Bedouins live in Sahara and Arabian deserts. They live in tents made of goat's or camel's skin. They wear long flowing robes and their food is mainly camel's milk, cheese and dates.

(c) Write a few things about the life of some Mongol people.

Ans: Some of the Mongol people of the Gobi desert in Asia are nomads. The nomadic Mongols are herdsmen, keeping horses, sheep, cattle, goats and camels.