

Knowledge is power

BANGLADESH INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL, ENGLISH SECTION, RIYADH

NAME: _____

SUBJECT: Geography

GRADE: 2 SECTION _____

LESSON : Less - 1 "Hot and cold place"

DATE: _____

SEMESTER : First Term WORK SHEETNO : 3

WORKSHEET DONE BY: MRS. SHAHEEN AKTER

SIGNATURE OF HOD:

Q1. Match the following:

- a. The Equator is an ~~_____~~ i. equator.
- b. Sun's rays shine straight down ~~_____~~ ii. imaginary line.
- c. The hottest countries is ~~_____~~ iii. Sahara desert
- d. Polar animals is a ~~_____~~ iv. Libya.
- e. Hot days , cold nights and little rain ~~_____~~ v. penguin.

Q2. Tick (✓) the correct answer:

- a. The sun warms the surface of earth strongly at
- i. equator✓ ii. north pole iii. south pole
- b. The climate of Isles is what we called changeable.
- i. Irish ii. British✓ iii. Swiss
- c. There are large areas of snow and ice, near the...
- i. poles✓ ii. river iii. ocean
- d. is a polar animal.
- i. chicken ii. cow iii. seal✓
- e. Weather around the pole is very...
- i. hot ii. cold✓ iii. warm

Q3. Fill in the blanks:

- a. Mount Hufflenin a mountain near the equator.
- b. The temperature falls roughly 20 °c for each 300 meter you climb.
- c. We call the usual weather of a place its climate.
- d. Walrus live around the north pole.
- e. It gets colder at the top of some mountains.

Q4. Write true or false:

- a. Land around south pole is very cold all the year.
- b. Weather often changes from day to day.
- c. It is very cold near the equator.
- d. Weather around the pole is very cold.
- e. It gets colder as you go up the mountain.

Q5. Label the diagram

