

BANGLADESH INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL, ENGLISH SECTION.
ISLAMIC EDUCATION
GRADE - 10
Session -2019-2020
UNIT-7–Prohibited in Islam, LESSON - 4–Violation of Property

A. Fill in the blanks:

1. The Islamic Shariah sanctions the right to personal property.
2. A thief cannot be engaged in stealing while he is a believer.
3. Allah prohibited a Muslim from taking the property of others.

B. Write True or False

1. The sanctity of property along with the sanctity of life and honor. True
2. Increasing wealth or property through investment for common benefit is not a praiseworthy deed. False
3. Do not consume one another's wealth unjustly True

C. Answer the following questions.

Q.1. What does Islam says about wealth?

Ans. Islam says about wealth “How excellent is good wealth in the hands of a good man”

Q.2. How much wealth is a Muslim permitted to acquire?

Ans. A Muslim is permitted to acquire as much wealth as he desire, as long as he acquires it through lawful means and increases it through lawful investments.

Q.3. Can property be wasted under our management?

Ans. No, all property under our management is a trust, whether it belongs to us to the community or to people for whom we are responsible: so it must not be wasted.